

Daily Bible Reading

Your word is a lamp unto my feet
And a light to my path.

Psalm
119.105

Goal: 1) Read God's word on a consistent basis.
2) Encourage each other in our reading of God's word.

Commitment: I commit to the following method in reading the Bible in 2010.

- Track 1 Read the New Testament during 2010.
- Track 2 Read the Old Testament and New Testament during 2010 and 2011.
- Track 3 Read the Old Testament and the New Testament during 2010 using The Daily Bible.
- Track 4 Another reading schedule of my choice.

I'm also interested in the following:

- Being a partner with a family member or friend for encouragement in reading the Bible in 2010.

Do you have someone in mind? If so, list their name below.
If not, Billy Edwards or Glenn Daily can help you find a partner.

- Periodically meet on Sunday evenings prior to worship service to read a passage from God's word.
- Occasionally meet for a pot luck fellowship so we can encourage each other and celebrate the reading of God's word.
- ➔ List other ideas which would encourage each of us as we read God's word and have fellowship together.
