Lads-to-Leaders Kickoff Banquet

We started our 2009 L2L program with a L2L Kickoff Banquet on Saturday, September 6th. The food was delicious and the fellowship was even better!

Special thanks to Ty Miller, who was our keynote speaker. Ty emphasized how L2L can be an avenue for children and families to be more involved in the church. He stated the most important parts of life are Christian-related.

Thanks also to Kent Blake, Archie Vest, Len Walp, Marsha Vann and her puppeteers, Trenton Miller, Paul Nash, Mark Conder and Mickey Weeks for their part in the banquet program.

Thanks to everyone who prepared food and performed the setup and cleanup. Again this year Janet Smith and Lynn Gray did another excellent job in the coordination of the L2L Kickoff Banquet! Thanks to Janet and Lynn for their hard work each year.

The Challenge

Another Women's Leadership Challenge began on September 9th. Over the next several weeks the women will complete 10 challenges that will stretch their individual spiritual growth. Please encourage these women to keep up the great work as they complete The Challenge.

Want to raise your child to be a leader?

- Leaders influence
Set an example by instructing your child in the ways of the Lord. (Eph 6:1-4)
- Leaders navigate
Set an example by ensuring you and your child use the word of God as the guide to life. (2 Tim 3:16)
- Leaders set priorities
Set an example by nurturing your child within a family which is God-centered. (Mk 12:29-31)
- Leaders leave a legacy
Set an example by passing to your child the Christian faith and moral values. (2 Tim 1:5; 3:14-15)

A vital aspect of parenting is timing. We only have our children, a gift from God, for a short period of time. The example we set to our children will have a lifetime effect on our children's lives. The choices we make set the example as to how our children will make future choices. During the timeframe we have our children in our care let us help our children store up treasures in heaven. (Mt 6:20)

This month PAGE 2 of the SLD Newsletter provides information on Lads-to-Leaders (L2L) for 2009.
